SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, Defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this Court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

1. You must not commit another federal, state, or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the Court.
 - ☒ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the Court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse (Check if applicable).
4. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution (Check if applicable).
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer (Check if applicable).
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense (Check if applicable).
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence (Check if applicable).

DEFENDANT: NICOLE MCBEE
CASE NUMBER: 3:22-CR-00385-S(01)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed of, report to the Court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the Court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the Court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full-time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment, you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the Court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the Court and has provided me with a written copy of this Judgment containing these conditions. I understand additional information regarding these conditions is available at www.txnp.uscourts.gov.

Re: McBee, Case No. 3:22-CR-385-S(01)

CorrHealth, PLLC

$190,487.95

Re: McBee, Case No. 3:22-CR-385-S(01)

Liberty Mutual Insurance Company

$50,000.00

Re: Claim No. 23919789

If upon commencement of the term of supervised release any part of the restitution remains unpaid, the Defendant shall make payments on such unpaid balance in monthly installments of not less than 10 percent of the Defendant's gross monthly income, or at a rate of not less than $250 per month, whichever is greater. Payment shall begin no later than 60 days after the Defendant's release from confinement and shall continue each month thereafter until the balance is paid in full. In addition, at least 50 percent of the receipts received from gifts, tax refunds, inheritances, bonuses, lawsuit awards, and any other receipt of money shall be paid toward the unpaid balance within 15 days of receipt. This payment plan shall not affect the ability of the United States to immediately collect payment in full through garnishment, the Treasury Offset Program, the Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, the Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act of 1990 or any other means available under federal or state law. Furthermore, it is ordered that interest on the unpaid balance is waived pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3).

Defendant shall not be employed by, affiliated with, own or control, or otherwise participate, directly or indirectly, in the business of accounting, bookkeeping, or payroll without the probation officer's approval.

Defendant shall not be employed in any fiduciary capacity or any position allowing access to the financial information or accounts of others, including individuals or companies, unless the Defendant's employer is fully aware of the offense of conviction and with the approval of the probation officer.

Defendant shall maintain not more than one business and/or one personal checking or savings accounts, and shall not open, maintain, be a signatory on, or otherwise use any other financial institution account without the prior approval of the probation officer.

Defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset with a value of $500 or more without the approval of the probation officer.

Defendant shall refrain from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without approval of the probation officer unless the probation officer makes a determination that the Defendant is in compliance with the payment schedule.

Defendant shall pay any remaining balance of restitution as set out in this Judgment.

If ordered, Defendant shall pay any remaining balance of the fine as set out in this Judgment.

Defendant shall provide to the probation officer any requested financial information.

Defendant shall participate in outpatient mental health treatment services as directed by the probation officer until successfully discharged, which services may include prescribed medications by a licensed physician, with Defendant contributing to the costs of services rendered (copayment) at a rate of at least $25 per month.

Should such a program be available and participation will not interfere with Defendant's ability to pay restitution or attend other treatment, Defendant shall participate in a program aimed at maintaining financial stability, such as financial management, preventing overspending, and/or budgeting.
